Theme: "A holistic approach to health through quality nutrition - future and emerging trends"

Workshops: 31st October - 1st November 2023 | Conference: 2nd - 4th November 2023

Dear All,

We are privileged to host the 26th World Congress on Clinical Nutrition along with a certificate (Workshop) course on Clinical Nutrition from 31st October to 4th November at Heritage Institute of Medical Sciences, Varanasi.

Kashi or Varanasi is the oldest living city of the world having four Universities and the seat of learning, art, culture and also the religious capital of India. Heritage Institute of Medical Sciences is the first Post-graduate medical institute in the eastern Uttar Pradesh comprising of all specialties department with 1000 bedded hospital.

The Various places of attraction in Varanasi are Ghats of Ganga, Kashi Vishwanath Dham, Rudraksh convention center, Sarnath and other adjoining places. In Addition to great attraction for Hindus, It is equally important for Buddhists as Lord Buddha gave his first sermon after enlightenment at Sarnath. Also an important place for Jains since their three Theerthankan were born at Varanasi. In medical world , Sushruta – the father of surgery and plastic surgery practiced his skills at Varanasi in addition to Lord Dhanvantari Vagbhata who practiced at Kashi.

The organizing committee welcome and extend warm invitation to attend this prestigious World Congress on Clinical Nutrition at Varanasi. And also to embrace the religious, cultural and spiritual aspects of life at Varanasi in a very cordial environment. The committee is eagerly waiting for your active participation.
